

Digital Television copyright protection should be no different then then over the air non digital TV. Recording for home use (time shifting) is ok.